Anthology of Pacific music. The collection includes the older, traditional songs accompanied by the striking of two stones, one held in each hand; kai-kai chants; Church music; sausau; and dance music. Several numbers were recorded during the 1995 Tapati celebration. Papa Kiko (Luis Paté Paoa), described as a "living Rapanui library," is featured in many of the songs and chants. Information on obtaining this excellent CD can be had by contacting Arhoolie, 10341 San Pablo Avenue, El Cerrito, CA 94530; phone (510) 525 7471; fax (510) 525-1204. PAN Records are also distributed by Topic Records in the UK; Festival Distribution in Canada; I.H.L. Distribution in France; Grammophone Heeb AG in Switzerland, or by writing Mundo Etnico Foundation, Sibeliusstraat 707, 5011 JR Tilburg, The Netherlands. Price, US $20.

"Cantas y Danzas, Isla de Pascua" is another CD that has appeared in Chile. It is by the Conjunto Taina Vaikava, by EMI, Odion Chilena, S.A. This CD sells for US $22 on the continent but is $28 on the island itself

BULLETIN OF THE INTERNATIONAL STRING FIGURE ASSOCIATION

Throughout the Pacific the making of string figures dispels monotony and provides mirth. On Easter Island, string figures (kai-kai) are often used to illustrate myths and legends.

BISFA publishes descriptions of string figures from around the world, both ancient and modern, as well as articles that examine their distribution, evolution, and social function.
